With Evolt Capital's alternative financing products we have the ability to work with a variety of clients that may not fit a bank's underwriting criteria or may have triggered loan covenants.

Why work with Evolt Capital?

- We can preserve depository relationships with bank customers that no longer fit credit criteria
- We can finance bank customers who fall below the bank's minimum credit score, debt service coverage, and collateral coverage
- We offer an expansive list of offerings for bank customers who need something outside of traditional loans while preserving the existing relationships they have with their bank
